

Upstreet2

Take-along transport

Whether you are camping or on your daily commute by train, the Upstreet2 comes into its own when space is at a premium. The compact folding bicycle does not have to make any concessions in terms of its riding performance: thanks to its clever folding hinge with double protection and its stable frame, the Upstreet2 provides astonishing riding stability and comfort. The agile 20-inch wheels and the smooth Bosch drive of the latest generation guarantee dynamic riding enjoyment. And through all this, the Upstreet2 remains faithful to the "one for all" motto: this one-size e-bike is suitable for anyone who is 150 to 190 centimetres tall.
